

I am in favor of keeping the morse code requirement for amateur radio licensing. I worked hard to get my license and am proud of my accomplishments in morse code. In times of poor band conditions and crowded frequencies morse code will always be the reliable form of communication.
Thank you, Collin Collier, N4TUA